And yeah, it sounds good in a different way than the UMC22. It's just that the UMC22 sounds great. I like the way it sounds. A lot of people do. I'm not calling it crap just because it's another USB audio interface. But let's look at some specs. It has the same 3 inputs and 2 outputs as the UMC22, plus it has an additional XLR mic input. Budget-Friendly USB Audio Interface with Mic Preamplifier.
